

IIA North West District

Gary Taylor – Committee Member, IIA North West District

Gary has worked for PWC, KPMG and other smaller practices delivering audits across financial services clients, undertaking reviews and audits in the UK and on a Global basis.

He also led teams on audits and SOX work in UK, Europe and India.

He designed and delivered internal audit and risk platforms for Clients in the UK and the European Union in local and central government.

Gary also undertook, on behalf of major USA investment banks, compliance reviews and issues resolution, bad debt provision for several products within the investment sector.

Gary has also worked with CIS, Royal Liver, RSA as well as several mutual and friendly societies.

Gary brings over fifteen years' internal audit experience gained initially in the UK and Globally for Blue chip clients across many lines of business.

His expertise is in Internal audit and Risk management.