

IIA Southern & South East District

Lana Shirley

Educational background in Economics, Quality Management & Assurance, and Quality Auditing. Over ten years experience in the fire protection and security industry within a global organisation (UK branch), which primarily involved the development of quality assurance policies and procedures, health and safety inspections, fraud prevention, and quality/compliance auditing of various department within the organisation, in addition acting as company Health & Safety Committee member.

Also qualified in Psychology (stress counselling) and have operational experience within a Human Resources role, with particular emphasis on recruitment, training and development, occupational health, and payroll and employee benefits.

Moved into Internal Auditing in April 2008, attained IA Certificate qualification in January 2009, and currently studying for the PIIA.