

IIA Irish District

Institute of Internal Auditors – Irish District Conference 2010

An Audit Odyssey

The Irish District Society of the Institute of Internal Auditors is pleased to announce that our 22nd annual conference is already attracting speakers of noteworthy national and international standing. These include:

- Prof Mervyn King, Chairman of the King Committee on corporate governance, South Africa
- Frank Cushnahan, Chair of Audit Committee of the Office of the First Minister and Deputy First Minister
- Mary Hardy, Head of Risk Assurance, The London Organising Committee of the Olympic Games and Paralympic Games Ltd
- Sean Mahon, Director of Cable & Wireless Ireland
- Peter Morris, Group Chief Internal Auditor, Bank of Ireland
- Tom O'Higgins, Member of Irish Human Rights Commission
- Prof Andrew Kakabadse, Professor of International Management Development at Cranfield University

The conference will be facilitated by Martin Robinson, Education and Training Consultant for IIA and the Fraud Advisory Panel.

Don't miss out on the Irish internal audit professional development and networking event of the year. For participants, this is the ideal opportunity to be exposed to emerging best practice, to mix with peers and to consider the concepts that will challenge existing working practices and enhance their methodologies.

Limited number of sponsorship opportunities available – further details on request.

Date

22-23 April 2010

Venue

Johnstown House Hotel, Enfield, Co. Meath
(Accessible venue only 30 mins from Dublin airport, off M50)

Fees

Cost of the full conference (Arrive Thursday 22nd April; Depart Friday 23rd April incl 1 night's accommodation):

€700 for members

€800 for non members

€300 members – Day Delegate

€350 non members – Day Delegate

Discount €100 if booked by 12 March 2010 (not applicable to day delegate rates)

Contact

For further information contact Mandy Coleman at mandy.coleman@iaa.org.uk or telephone 00 353 1 284 9669